

Your AI-Generated Valentine's Gift

In Marrakesh's vibrant, crimson night
Your eyes shine like lanterns bright
Amidst ancient walls and mystic air
Our love becomes a secret prayer

The scent of jasmine wafts by our side
As we wander through the souk's delight
The sound of Gnawa drums does reside
In the beat of my heart, where you ignite

In this city of enchantment and dreams
With you, my love, I find my sweetest themes
